

Promoting Life Long Strategies for Success in School, Home, Community and Work

Support Milestones Autism Organization's work in the Cleveland community.

"The Best of Cleveland" COMEDY NIGHT

Monday, November 23, 2009

Photo courtesy of Jessica Miller

Hosted by David Wain

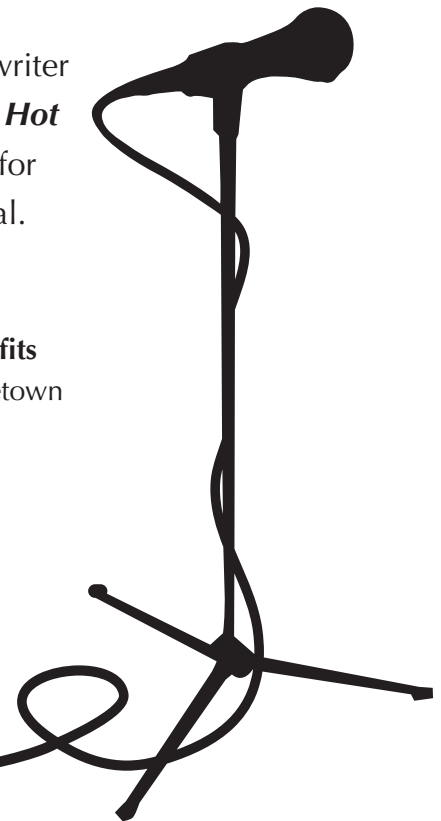

A Shaker Heights native, comedian, writer and director of Role Models and Wet Hot American Summer, also well known for his work on MTV and Comedy Central.

With Special Guests

Last Call Cleveland and Friends with Benefits along with cameo appearances from hometown comedians and celebrities.

All acts are donating their time to support Milestones Autism Organization.

Pickwick & Frolic Restaurant and Club, 2035 East 4th Street, Cleveland
Doors open at 7:00 pm Must be 21 or older to attend.
General Seats $36 Reserved seats also available.

For more information and tickets, call 216.464.7600,
email info@milestones.org or visit www.milestones.org