

Guiding Questions for a Counselor, Therapist, Social Worker or Psychologist

Although all social workers for individuals with Developmental Disabilities have guidelines, they may vary from location or individual provider. Use the following questions to guide discussions with social workers that you are interested in in order to better prepare the individual with ASD and their supporting team to choose a provider and work collaboratively with them to ensure long-term success.

County: ______ Provider: _____

Questions	Answers, Related Resources, Suggestions
1. General Contact Information	Phone:
	Email:
	Address:
	Hours:
	Website:
	Specific Contact/Title:
2. What is the intake process? What documents will be needed?

3.	What insurance do you accept? Do you offer a sliding fee scale? Do you accept Medicaid? Do you accept private pay?
4.	Do you have a specific focus or area of specialty?
5.	What is your experience working with clients with Autism? Do you have any autism specific training?
6.	What is your approach to treatment? What type of therapy do you use? For example: ABA, early intensive behavioral therapy, or discrete trial training?

7. Do you curre	ently have a waiting list? If so, how lo	ng?
8. Can we have appointment	a consultation prior to the first
Would there	be a fee to have a consultation?
-	e to work with my child as he/she ages ted to a specific age range?	or
10. What is your who is non-v	r approach to working with an individu verbal?	al

11. Are you willing/able to participate in team meetings with the other professionals working with my child?
12. How do you share information with families?
13. Do you have a psychiatrist that works with you on a referral basis?	